It is Reported that Strike Spreads Through Country From Coast to Coast

Chicago, April 8.—The unauthorised strike of switchmen and railroad engineers which started in the Chicago district and spread today to several cities, will be broken within the next 48 hours, A. F. Whitney, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and S. S. Heberling, international president of the Switchmen's Union of North America, predicted tonight.

The strike situation in Chicago showed some improvement during the day, but Whitney said that the traffic handled was still less than 50 per cent of normal.

One thousand brotherhood men from other cities have answered the call to come here as strike breakers, he added.

While conditions here showed improvement, the strike was spreading throughout the country from coast to coast. Reports tonight summarized the situation as follows:

Chicago—3,000 men out; freight traffic 30 to 40 per cent of normal; 40,000 packing plant workers thrown out of work with complete suspension of the plants, employing 50,000 men, in prospect tomorrow.

Buffalo—1,500 to 2,000 men idle; embargo on all freight in effect.

Kansas City—200 to 300 men out;

freight embargo in effect.
Los Angeles—1,200 men employed by transcontinental lines on strike.
Toledo—600 men out; complete freight tie-up within 24 hours predicted.
Detroit—1,000 men out and 500 more expected to follow tonight.
Gary, Ind.—300 to 400 idle; 350 Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen vote to remain loyal to their union.
East St. Louis—300 out; 50,000 St. Louis vote to "resign" at midnight unless demands are granted.
Decatur, Ill.—107 men on strike; vote to stay out until demands are granted.
Joliet, Ill.—50 on trolley roads strike; Chicago outer belt men refuse to join walkout.

ONTARIO HAS LIQUOR BILL INTRODUCED

Toronto, April 8.—In the legislature today the bill introduced by P. G. Sandy, of South Victoria, supplementing dominion legislation prohibiting the importation of liquor into Ontario, is calculated to render this province as nearly "bone dry" as rests within the power of the law. The bill, which is to be known as "The Liquor Transactions Act, 1920," provides that every person within the province of Ontario, who, either by himself or his servant or his agent, transports or carries liquor within Ontario for sale or consumption within the province or who delivers liquor to any person in Ontario for sale or consumption within the province shall be guilty of an offence and subject to the penalties provided by the Ontario Temperance Act.

Specific mention is made that the act does not forbid sale, transportation or delivery of liquor for export from Ontario; transportation of liquor through Ontario, from any place out of the province to any other place outside the province; sale and delivery of liquor by or under the order of the Ontario license board for any purpose for which the liquor may be lawfully sold or consumed under the provisions of the Canada temperance act and its amendments.

It is also specified that the act does not apply to the sale, carriage, transportation or delivery of native wines so far as the same may be lawful under the O.T.A.

The act is to come into force on a date named by the lieutenant governor in council. The definition of liquor is the same as in the Ontario temperance act.

Irrigation Best Kind of Farming

Col. J. S. Dennis tells of Introduction.

Just why the farmers of the southern territory of the prairie provinces are clamoring for further extensions of the existing irrigation schemes was made clear recently, when Col. J. S. Dennis, of the C. P. R. Department of Colonization and Development, addressed the professors and students of Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, on irrigation in the west. The large audience listened intently to the lecture, which was admirably illustrated with a series of lantern slides depicting the progress of the C. P. R. irrigation system and the fruits of this method of farming.

The speaker divided his discourse under three heads, dealing with the introduction of irrigation in Alberta by the C.P.R., and the motives which had induced him to recommend and urge this; the success as proved by the company but the temporary failure of some settlers due to lack of experience in the application of water and cycle of wet years; the reversal of opinion after practical tests, and the consequent overwhelming demand for further irrigation projects on the prairie.

"For a long time," said Col. Dennis, "there were many who claimed that irrigation was unnecessary in Western Canada. Because conditions of drought do not regularly occur there, they argued, there was not the same urgency for irrigation as in other less fortunately situated countries where the rainfall is usually so small as to make agriculture practically impossible without artificial application. It is rather gratifying now," said the speaker, retrospectively, "in view of this tremendous opposition, to see the radical right-about-face in sentiment and to hear these same men assert that practically the whole of the south country needs irrigation to make agriculture permanently successful. The experience of the past two years with a rainfall in Southern Alberta of less than 10 inches, and the bumper crops raised by irrigationists, is responsible in no small measure for this great change in opinion."

Outlining the extent of the semi-arid portion of the province of Alberta, which he stated stretched 100 miles north of the American boundary and from the Rocky Mountains to the Cypress Hills in Saskatchewan, the speaker stated that American irrigation engineers of prominence, after investigating conditions thoroughly, had given it as their opinion that the rainfall was insufficient to follow farming profitably, and the question to be decided was not whether water was needed, but rather just how long this territory could grow any kind of crops without irrigation.

"Irrigation, when practically applied, is the best kind of farming," said the colonel with conviction, "because it is the only system that permits of the most intelligent treatment of every individual crop to suit its own requirements. It eliminates the necessity of summer fallow and starve the soil, it is a quick and sure method of farming, and it is the basis of all agricultural prosperity and this system flourishes splendidly under irrigation in the raising of special food crops which it is difficult to raise without water."

"In every case where it has been put to the test in competition with ordinary farming methods, irrigation has been proved to increase production from 25 to 100 per cent. This is due to the fact that in the irrigation belt land is being sold for considerably over $100 per acre and at farms are seldom offered for sale even at that price, the owners being reluctant to sell. The 'Lethbridge Herald,' by careful compilation, places a conservative estimate of $54.71 as the average value of the product on an acre of the 62,230 acres tract. Cases were many where potatoes yielded 170 to the acre, alfalfa $125, and wheat $105 per acre. The annual report issued by the Board of Trade in this same city contains a comparative statement showing the results of crops grown on dry and irrigated land and gives the following increases of crops grown under irrigation—Wheat 23 bushels, or 77 per cent; oats, 38 bushels, or 54 per cent; barley, 35 bushels or 81 per cent; peas, 14 bushels, or 51 per cent; potatoes, 250 bushels, or 105 per cent.

J. S. DENNIS, C.M.G.

CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF COLONIZATION & DEVELOPMENT

The Canadian Pacific Irrigation scheme in Southern Alberta, Col. Dennis signalled as the largest individual project on the American Continent, with area of 100,000 acres, while the irrigated area of Colorado or California. The irrigable area totals more than 100,000 acres, and the aggregate length of its canals and ditches is greater than Canada's longest river or the total distance from Vancouver to Halifax. To this original block a further area of 100,000 acres in the Lethbridge district was added when the C. P. R. took over the block originally developed by the Alberta Irrigation and Colonization Company, and this has shown the same remarkable progress and prosperity.

"Agitation at the present time is for further irrigation and quick irrigation," continued Col. Dennis, "farmers claim with justification that it is a life and death matter. If they are to remain on the land they must have it; if they do not get it the only thing to be got out. That the Provincial Government realizes this also is very evident from the fact that they have energetically taken up the new project. The Lethbridge Northern Irrigation District scheme comprises the irrigation of about 100,000 acres and will cost between three and four million dollars. Just recently the Lethbridge, Magrath and Stirling districts were called upon to vote on the formation of a further irrigation project which would embrace a total area of 150,000 acres and irrigate 95,000. When the ballot came to be recorded there was not a solitary vote recorded against the project."

"A vast sum of money," said Col. Dennis in concluding, "was put into the irrigation scheme by the C.P.R., but it has proved a sound proposition. The bumper crops raised on these irrigated farms, the high prices at which the land is being sold, the advance on the part of farmers to sell, and, above all, the general ramification in the south country for schemes to include the greater part of the south territory all prove that the initiative and foresight which promoted the project are now appreciated and rewarded."

ALWAYS WRONG

Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King was sure in 1911, says the Toronto Mail and Empire, that Canada wanted reciprocity with the United States. He was wrong. When that question was put before the people their answer was an emphatic Nay, accompanied by the expulsion of the Laurier government from office.

In 1917 Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King was sure that the country was opposed to compulsory military service. He was wrong. By an overwhelming majority the people declared for Union Government, and its Military Service Act, and its War Time Election Act.

In both these elections Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King was himself defeated at the polls.

At the opening of the present session of parliament Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King submitted a resolution by way of amendment to the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, which amendment called for the dissolution of parliament. He was wrong again. The House rejected his resolution by a majority of 34.

Mr. King's judgment is always against the judgment of the country, but that does not prevent him continuing to believe that he is right. He is still for reciprocity with the United States, still opposed to the Military Service Act, and still rages against the War Time Election Act. He is slow to learn that in this country it is the people who rule, and not the Ambitious Citizen.

TRYING TO ECONOMIZE

At least this can be said for the Union Government, a sincere effort is being made to practice economy. That is something. The estimate brought down gives indubitable evidence of the desire of the government to accomplish the important task of making both ends meet, says an Eastern exchange. The average citizen, having regard to his own current expenditure, will appreciate the difficulties to be overcome. With a national debt that demands over a hundred million dollars a year for interest charges, and pensions amounting to about fifty millions a year, a sum representing $18.75 per head of population must be provided over and above all other expenditures for national service. Add to that thirty millions for railways and twenty millions for ship building, and then see how hard it is to give an exhibition of economy that will satisfy anybody. The finance minister is doing his best, poor man, but he has uphill work.

PREMIER NEVER GAVE PROMISE

Edmonton, April 8.—Premier Charles Stewart told the legislature on Thursday night that he had never given any promise to irrigators that the government would guarantee the Leithbridge Northern district bonds.

The premier made the reference during his statement relative to the railway policy of the government. In dealing with the $2,000,000 assistance to the E.D. & B.C. The chief minister had just declared that he was endeavoring to deal with the subject in a frank manner and that he had never tried to "put anything over" members of the house.

"In passing," said the premier, "I might refer to an editorial in The Calgary Herald charging that I broke faith with the people of Leithbridge Northern irrigation district, that I had promised that the government would guarantee the bonds of the district. I absolutely never gave such a promise."

APPOINTMENTS TO MISSION FIELDS

Meek, Lone Pine Field—Mr. T. G. Marshall, Mayton Field—Mr. B. J. Russell, Hunterville Field—To be supplied, Greenleaf Field—To be supplied, Sarcee Butte Field—Mr. J. L. McGeer, Triple.

Finnish Mission—Rev. J. E. Luoma, Brooksville Field—Mr. J. Currie. The most diligent efforts will be made to supply the fields still vacant. As there is a scarcity of men for the ministry, this is not an easy matter, but several of the above students are returned soldiers and these have helped greatly to meet the need. The students will arrive on their fields as soon as they have completed their session in the different colleges.

SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR TALBOT.

That James Douglas, M. P. for Strathcona, is likely to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Talbot of Lacombe, is the interesting report brought back from Ottawa by Alderman J. C. Bowen, of Edmonton. Mr. Bowen returned to the city this morning after attending the Dominion convention of the G.W.V.A. at Montreal.

The likelihood of James Douglas getting a senatorship was being quite freely discussed in the commons and senate, according to Alderman Bowen, who talked with several members of both chambers. Mr. Douglas has been a member of the house of commons for some time, and has been a supporter of the union government since it took office—Journal.

SYLVAN LAKE NOTES

Mr. Steiner Johnson has resigned his position with the Co-operative Trading Association and will engage in business for himself.

Dr. McDonald, from Wayne, Alberta, has arrived to establish a medical practice here.

Hagerman & Co. report the following sales: The main crop of wheat to J. R. Heenan, J. R. Heenan general store building to F. S. Fleming will move his stock of drugs into his new building in a few days.

The H. Janssen farm south of town to Arthur F. H. Head, of Edmonton. The sale of the old Fleming drug store building to G. O. Sands and A. B. Hagerman.

Mr. J. R. Armstrong left for Lethbridge this morning where it is his intention to put in 3,000 acres of wheat this spring. Already work has been commenced.

At a well attended meeting of the Publicity Association on Monday, a committee was appointed to raise funds for the purpose of building a large pavilion near the lake for assembly purposes.

Mr. J. C. Harper disposed of his meat shop to his father, Mr. C. Harper, and his brother, and left for Carbon, Alberta.

ECKVILLE

Jack Coghill has sold his farm to Chris Boller, and is having a credit sale on April 15th. Jack has bought the Mountain View Hotel, and took possession on April 1st.

Miss Temple Crawford is spending Easter with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Osney are coming back to their farm west of Evans. Two of Mrs. Berton's grandchildren have been spending Easter with her.

Mr. Clifford Coghill has returned from the Guelph Business College, at Guelph.

Easter Sunday was a cold and windy day with lots of snow on the ground.

We would like to know if prohibition has no place in Eckville. At present some women and children do not like to come here, as a number of men are often the worse of strong drink. It is high time there was a stop put to that.

Mr. C. Douglas, Dolco Light agent was in town on Monday.

Last week there was not one item in Eckville Recorder of local news. What's the use of having a newspaper if it doesn't have anything around home to tell.

At the box social and dance held under the auspices of the Eckville Ladies' Aid on Wednesday night, a sum of $201 was raised. It was a very successful affair.

Thursday, April 15—Mr. J. Coghill's credit sale of stock and implements, 6 miles south of Eckville. A. R. Garies, auctioneer.

COMING TO CANADA.

Information has been received by the Salvation Army Immigration Department, Montreal, that a number of married men, who desire to secure positions on farms, will arrive in Canada from Great Britain with the opening of the St. Lawrence river to navigation this season. These people are of a splendid type, men who have served their country during the Great War, and who are now coming to Canada to find a home on the land, with a view of learning Canadian methods, and eventually securing farms for themselves and their children. Farmers who desire married help, and have accommodation for a man with family, should communicate with the Salvation Army at Montreal with a view of securing this very desirable class of help. We also understand there will be a few single men in the party. During the month of June or July the Salvation Army will probably bring a number of orphan children of school age to Ontario for adoption.

A RACE FOR GROCERIES AND LOVE

Helen Moore had broken the speed limit, successfully, on her way out to her father's country home at Great Neck. Her little roadster had eaten up the miles as if famishing until they were all consumed.

Helen had invited a large number of friends on the spur of the moment for a weekend party, and there was scant time to provision the closed home before the first guest should arrive. They would all motor out from the city and would get a mighty cold reception unless she hurried a bit.

Arriving at Great Neck, Helen drove up at the butcher's, had her purchases put as usual in her car, and went on then to the grocery shop to make another order.

Her little roadster swung against the curb a few yards beyond the door. A delivery wagon was directly in front of Helen took the next best position.

Inside the shop she made her large order.

"Just put them in the car," she told the grocery boy.

"The roadster?" questioned the boy, as, laden with the huge box, he obeyed orders.

A nod and a smile answered him, and Helen then turned to write a check in payment. It was a scant five minutes before she emerged ready for the final sprint that would lead her, well stocked with food for the inner man, up to the big driveway to her country home.

Helen sent a swift glance into the car to make sure her big box was safely there.

There was no box! And the boy had returned empty-handed to the store before she had finished making out her check. She hastened back to demand of the grocer the whereabouts of her order.

"I put it in the roadster," said the boy, and accompanied Helen to the door. She felt a great deal of relief. There must have been two similar cars by the curb, and he had placed the groceries in the wrong car.

Helen grasped facts immediately, and scanned the main street for the other roadster. If it were in sight it would be quicker to follow and get her box rather than wait until a duplicate order was made up.

"That's probably the car turning the bend," she decided, and swiftly jumped into her seat. Being in a tremendous hurry, and trying to follow the direction of that fast disappearing car, Helen did all the wrong things. She swung into reverse gear, stalled her engine almost hanging head-on into the one trolley in sight, and finally got away.

She sped after the receding car as if she longed to kill every inhabitant of Great Neck. It seemed often as if fortune were favoring that other car, for when Helen seemed about to spring alongside it she invariably found to her cost that it was the sudden appearance of a child in the roadway.

Wrath was gathering in her eyes and her cheeks were scarlet with excitement. Had she not been the daughter of a well-known townsman Helen would undoubtedly have screamed at the occupant of that twin roadster to stop and give her her groceries. Time was getting shorter, and she realized that her guests would be cooling impatient heels on her massive stone doorstep.

The man, for it was a man in gray tweed cap pulled well over his eyes, was oblivious to the fact that he was being angrily followed.

But suddenly he turned on a long bit of clear road, and in another second it would have seemed as if the Vanderbilt cup race was on, for the two cars careened along that highway as if in hot pursuit of a whirlwind. It was then the man knew he was being watched, but merely as the occupant of one speedy car trying to pass the other.

They went head to head until it was about the finish of clear road. It was then that the tweed cap driver saw that his opponent was a girl. He had not made the observation before being well content with trying the full capacity of his engine's power.

Now, with true gentlemanly tact he let off gas, slowed almost imperceptibly and let the girl drive well past him. He felt to wondering then if he had been racing with a mad woman, for she turning straight in the roadway so that a collision was only averted by swift, intelligent use of brake and steering.

The sudden stop dumfounded Helen, but she heuristically gave vent to an expression not flattering to women drivers.

"You have my groceries," the angry sentence flashed from one car to the other.

Davis started at the flaming cheeks and brilliant eyes of his stormy accuser, then dragging reluctant eyes away he glanced down into his car.

Then he did the most unpardonable thing he had so far done. He laughed uproariously.

Helen Moore was furious. She shut off as if to pave the way for a conversation under less strenuous circumstances. Having quiet now at her command, it was Davis who spoke.

"What makes you think I have your property in my car? My house—my car was in the village making an order and was going to put the box in here with me."

Helen sank back a little appalled, for in her heart she knew that the man was in no way responsible for her predicament, yet she could not bring a glow of anger.

He might have looked to see if the box was his before dashing off like a tornado with it.

"This much she told him before even as much as the ghost of a smile was permitted to dawn about her lips."

"Then where are my groceries?" demanded Davis, as if Helen was responsible for their loss. "I have a hunch waiting at the house now for food."

"I suppose yours are back in the car," Helen suggested. "If you don't mind I would like that if my guests will have gone back to town if I don't get home soon."

"That lets me out of going over to Smallwoods to arrange for the musk-dians I wanted for tomorrow night. Davis was a bit nervous himself now, and Helen's tone became wonderfully soft."

"I'm so sorry," she said, "but I have already engaged those musk-dians for my dance tomorrow night."

She was watching Davis now as he removed the box of groceries from one roadster to the other, and as she watched him her interest grew.

He was the type of man that any womanly girl would like, and like very much.

"Those come! And they are the ones on Long Island. It was because of them I got my lunch-out here," named Davis. "Those men could make a motor car dance. Well—you got them first."

He was standing close to Helen now, after having deposited the box safely in its rightful place. "I am sorry you had to chase your groceries, but I was really not to blame—was I?"

He waited his answer, and Helen knew he would wait until he got it. He was that type of man.

"Not in the least," she quickly told him, and did not regret the color that crept into her cheeks. It told him so plainly that she rather liked him. Then impulsively she said, "I wonder if it would be awfully unconventional if I were to ask all your house party over tomorrow night to join our dance? It is really a pity not to all enjoy those musk-dians— isn't it?"

Davis smiled sweetly and with unmistakable joy.

"By Jove! That's great of you." Then quickly, and with direct meaning, he added, "And does that mean that my party can dance with your party and—"

"In other words," laughed Helen, "you mean will I dance with you— isn't that it?"

"I would say it was," admitted Davis frankly.

And as Helen started the motor of the little red roadster that was twin to that other one, "I am so glad the grocery boy—made a mistake."

And then began that other race—the one on the road to love.

THE KNOT IN THE THREAD.

A little girl was trying to sew, but with every stitch something seemed to go wrong. "Mother," she cried at last, bursting into tears, "I can't make it stick! The mother best over the little toiler, and instantly the cause of the child's troubles was plain to her.

"Why, dearie, she said, 'you haven't tied the knot in your thread.' The knotless thread—ah! how much of life's precious energy is wasted because of it. Day after day we spend ourselves in aimless, purposeless, desultory effort, drawing the thread through the hole the needle has made, and out again—in and out, in and out—with no hold, no permanent result. Many a life that seems filled with activity, that is restless and bustling in its aimless way, nevertheless, accomplishing nothing, lacks a binding, fixing purpose—something to start from, something to make life definite, something to unify all one's planning and doing."

It is a sad mistake for one not to tie the knot of purpose in the thread of life while he is young. Let him early determine what he would be, what he would do, how he would serve his day and generation. That will give him his abiding hold on life; that is the saving, all-important knot in the thread. Once fix a purpose, and there will be no more wasted stitches. The garment of life will begin to take shape; there will be a unity and a coherency about all one's endeavor that will bring gladness and courage to the consequences of the soul.

Instead of so many empty needle holes, let the toll of each day show some connectedness, some definite addition to the lifelong task. Is it not worth while to fix early one's life? Then by each successive effort the earnest toiler shall come nearer the Master's "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"

The ascendancy that shows on our sales record, naturally tallies with the "road" record.

The second meeting of the Council was held in McKinnon's Hall, March 21st, 1920. All the members of the Council were present.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted as correct. At the suggestion of the Reeve, the business of the Council was laid on the table until the Council discussed the question of the Cache crossing at R.M.H. and the proposed overhead bridge. The Council Commission was to investigate the matter the following day. It was thought advisable for the Council as a whole to meet the commission and try to come to some agreement with them, so Councillor J. Card moved "That the next Council meeting be held in R.M.H. tomorrow, April 1st, in order to meet the Railway Commission." Carried.

Motion by Councillor Sjdahl to adjourn. Carried.

ADJOURNED COUNCIL MEETING

Members present, Reeve McKinnon, Councillors J. Card, G. Meston, P. Paulson and H. Sjdahl. After inspecting the present crossing, and the site of the proposed overhead bridge, the matter was discussed with the Division Superintendent and the engineer of the C.N.R., the representative of the Railway Commission, W. Elmhurst and W. Wilson of the village of R.M.H. and the following agreement was reached: Re. overhead bridge on the centre line of section 23-39-75, C.N.R. to build the bridge and to maintain same within their Right of Way, the Municipality to maintain same outside of Right of Way. The Municipal Council agreed to an 8 per cent. grade on the approaches to the bridge and to a 5 ft. fill to the approaches; also, when the new road and the bridge are completed the Municipal Council agree to close the present road to all traffic over the Right of Way and when the road is made the C.N.R. to build the bridge.

OTHER BUSINESS

Correspondence was read. Motion by Councillor Sjdahl "That the Secretary be instructed to write the Department of Public Works the letter received from the Medicine Valley U.P.A. asking the Department to spend $1,000.00 to build a road between Tps. 40-41, along Section 34-45." Carried.

Motion by Councillor J. Card "That the balance of the correspondence be laid on the table until the next meeting." Carried.

Councillor Paulson was given permission to spend $23.00 for bridge material. Reeve McKinnon was given permission to spend $75.00 for fencing the hill at Leslieville and clearing the road south to the correction line. Councillor J. Card was given permission to spend $75.00 for bridge piling and for fencing the hill at Leslieville.

Councillor Sjdahl was given permission to spend $75.00 for bridge piling for Chicken Creek bridge. Motion by the Reeve "That Councillor J. Card, the Secretary and himself be a committee to try and procure some feed for stock." Carried. Motion by Councillor Sjdahl "That all the remaining business be held over till next meeting to be held at Leslieville on April 28." R. McCallum, Sec'y-Treas.

PEACE RESOLUTION
IS ALMOST CERTAIN
TO PASS SENATE

Washington, April 8.—The peace resolution has passed the half way mark on its way through the house when echoes of the storm of oratory and debate it provoked died away to night. For six hours it was the center of discussion on the floor, yet no one questioned that it would be adopted. The final vote will come late tomorrow.

There was a vote today on adoption of the special committee report and preventing amendment of the resolution as drawn by the committee on foreign affairs. The rule was carried 214 to 155, seven Democrats joining the Republicans in its support and one Republican opposing it. This was taken to indicate action on the resolution itself.

Rep. Huddleston said that more Democrats would join them on the final vote. One of the Democrats, Rep. Huddleston of Alabama, who voted against the rule, announced that he would support the resolution.

Changes of partisanship through Democratic comment on the resolution. Rep. Huddleston noted these but insisted that conscience would not let him trot along with his party majority and oppose the peace proposal. "Company" his decision forced him to keep.

The November elections figured almost as prominently in the debate as did the international situation, war time legislation or even President Wilson's share in the treaty fight. A statement by Rep. Pou, Democrat, North Carolina, that the president had been without personal ambition in his actions brought a roar of laughter from the Republican side.

WILL KEEP DOWN
LUMBER PRICES

Calgary.—That there will be no further increase in the price of lumber if the manufacturer can possibly help it was the statement of I. E. Poole, secretary of the Lumbermen's Association, today. Mr. Poole said this decision had been arrived at notwithstanding the increased cost of production. If the manufacturer can control the situation, the price of lumber will certainly not further advance," he definitely stated. Another matter which occupied considerable time of the convention was the gathering of facts for presentation to the Canadian Board of Commerce, covering 1919 operations. These will be presented to the board in due course. Mr. Poole stated that these figures will prove conclusively that the manufacturers were not in the "profiteering" class.

EXAMINER'S REVIEW OF PROVINCIAL MARKETS.

Calgary, April 9th

Cattle
Quite a few shipments of nice cattle have been on the Calgary market during the past few days, and a few tons made $15, and good heavy fat steers and some baby beef stuff sold from $12.25 up; with good butcher steers from $11.50 to $13; some medium beef sold around $11, but below that there was no business. Choice yearlings sold from $11.50 to $12; some medium beef sold around $11, but below that there was no business. Choice yearlings sold from $11.50 to $12; some medium beef sold around $11, but below that there was no business.

Hogs
Prices at the Calgary yards have been strengthening during the week, and for the past few days the limited number on hand have been selling at $21.25. This morning the price was $21.25, and not many offered.

Sheep
There has been some movement of breeding sheep through Calgary this week, and prices range from $8 to $15, according to quality. Butcher stock is scarce and would sell well.

Horses
There is absolutely no market except for the very best heavy teams, and they will bring from $500 to $600, but they have to be something more than ordinary.

Grain
Markets have been fluctuating somewhat owing to uncertain conditions in the American markets. Canadian cash prices on oats have been firm, but away by the uncertain outlook.

Produce
Alberta is very short of butter and several cars have been shipped up from Montreal. Prices on creamery and dairy butter advanced, the former now wholesaling at 65¢ to 75¢; dairy butter from 55¢ down.

Potatoes
The demand very active on all table butter. Butcher advanced, cream station prices, 64¢ to 70¢, and creamery prices, 68¢ to 74¢ on the three grades. Eggs are a firm market at around $12.00, receipts fairly heavy.

Poultry
Potatoes moving fairly steady at from $5 to $7, at country points. Live poultry in good demand, and prices firm with light movement. Dressed meats have all advanced about 1¢ per pound.

Hay
Feed conditions most alarming in many parts of the province, and profiteers have taken advantage of some occasions and charged $70 per ton for hay. Dealers are able to bring hay in from Ontario, and the west coast, which can be sold at from $55 to $60 per ton. There is scarcely any hay available in Alberta, and the buying price is around $50 and upwards. Green feed, when in condition for shipping, is worth from $30 to $40.

Hides
Market does not look as strong this week, and though prices are unchanged the trade expectations is that quotations will decline.

Furs
Market quiet and prices unchanged, with prospects for fairly steady tone until next auction sales are held in New York.

BILLS GIVE DIVORCE
COURTS TO PROVINCES

Ottawa, April 9.—Two bills were introduced in the senate yesterday, the effect of which would be to give divorce courts to all the provinces except Quebec. This would have the effect of taking divorce cases out of parliament almost entirely, since of the hundred odd cases now before the house, all from Ontario and Quebec, the proportion is about a dozen from Ontario to one from Quebec.

The only provinces which have not set up their own divorce courts are Ontario and Quebec, while the power of Prince Edward Island courts has been limited. The two bills introduced in the senate yesterday give divorce powers to the supreme court of Ontario, and to the courts of Prince Edward Island. In the latter province it has been claimed there has never been a divorce case so far.

SINN FEINERS' DESTRUCTION
WILL COST HIGH

Dublin, April 8.—It is officially stated that the police quarters destroyed during the recent raids in Ireland number 220. From the claims already made for compensation it is estimated that the taxpayers will have to meet a bill exceeding $2,000,000.

London, April 8.—The Daily Graphic's Dublin correspondent learns that the buildings destroyed in Ireland were not chosen at haphazard, but in accordance with a plan formulated two or three months ago, when the Sinn Feiners declared that they were intended for military occupation on the block-house system adopted in South Africa during the Boer war. They were loopholed for rifles and machine-guns and fortified with sand-bags. They were to be occupied in the immediate future and if their destruction had been postponed a short time, it would have been too late, as attacks would have inevitably failed, and the attacking forces would have lost many men.

DEATH OF REV. S. BOND

Mrs. D. G. Horn received the sad news Wednesday morning of the death of her father, Rev. Stephen Bond, at Toronto, at the age of 82 years. She had word last week that he was down with flu, but even up to Monday his condition was considered improved. The news of her father's death was quite a grief to Mrs. Horn, as she was looking forward to having her father and mother out to visit her in six weeks. Mrs. S. N. Curcullen went down from Calgary to Toronto on Monday.

Mr. Bond was one of the gifted and faithful pastors who laid the foundations of Methodism in Ontario and Quebec. He was in the active Methodist ministry in these provinces for 23 years. Before he was superannuated twelve years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Bond were out West several times to visit their daughters in Red Deer, and are known to quite a number of the citizens. Three sons live in Winnipeg, Schreiber, and Toronto.

M. D. OF PINE LAKE-339

The Reeve reported that he was unable to obtain a lease of the office in the Smith & Gault block; none of the offices or rooms were leased. Messrs. Fluke, McKinnon and Reay were appointed a committee to look after office furniture needed, with power to act.

Councillor McKinnon was appointed a committee to go to Innisfail on April 17 to take up with the M.D. of Arthur the improvement of the roads between the districts.

Mrs. Edward Wilson presented the auditor's report and financial statement, which was ordered to be published in the local papers. The receipts for the year had been $7,107.41, the disbursements $5,254.31, leaving a balance of $1,853.10. The assets over liabilities were $39,500.26, of which $20,555 was arrears of taxes uncollected in Division 4 adjoining the city. Div. 1, 2, 3 and 4 had small credit balances on 1918. There were small debit balances. Councillor Waldo's district had the lowest amount of arrears on farm taxes.

The 1919 grant of $200 to the Red Deer Agricultural Society was ordered to be paid.

The Balmoral School Board asked for $1,000 to pay charges. The Provincial Sanitary Engineer asked particulars of installation of chemical, dry or other similar closets, in schools or other public buildings. The Council did not act on these matters.

Several accounts were held over for further details. The 1918 Councilors in Div. 2 and 3, and some lumber accounts were referred back for further particulars. ## BENALTO

Mr. C. W. Jenkins has returned to Benalto after spending the past three months in Iowa and California.

Mr. McIntosh, of Ekville, was a visitor here on Monday.

Among the shipments from Benalto the last week were noticed a car of hogs, three cars of cattle, one car of hogs, one car of green feed, one car of hay, eleven cars of oats. Coming in were two cars of cattle, one car of tractor, one car of settler's effects, and one car of gasoline, besides very large quantities of implements.

Campbell & Griffin, of Calgary, have opened their new cream station here with a good supply of cream being delivered. The plant is in charge of Mr. C. Koskula.

The Benalto Boosters are holding a supper and entertainment on Saturday evening. Everybody welcome. Come along and join in the good work.

Baile's Photoplay Company are starting a series of motion picture shows here. The first show on Thursday night proved the class of entertainment they offer, and was enjoyed by a packed house.

Mr. S. E. McKee and sons purchased a very fine Shorthorn bull at the Calgary sale to head their already choice herd of cattle. Mr. McKee is so congratulated on his selection.

Mr. Myrtle spent the week-end in Calgary and reports a very enjoyable outing.

Miss Laycock spent the holidays with her parents at Poncha.

Mr. John Hecla has purchased another quarter section of land south of town.

Mr. J. M. Hillman was in town on Saturday listing his farm, stock and implements for sale as a going concern. John is one of the old timers and has been in the district for 25 years.

The land buyers are again with us with renewed vigor, and several are exchanging hands at very good prices.

The directors of the Benalto Agricultural Society held a good meeting on Wednesday, revising the price list for the coming exhibition—July 20-21.

Tells How to Regain Perfect Health and Keep it by Bathing Internally.

Are you aware that nearly one million bright, intelligent people throughout Canada and the United States alone bathe internally instead of loading their systems with drugs? Why? Because it keeps them in better health in every way.

Internal bathing is the only sure means of keeping the intestines clean and free from accumulated waste matter, which is sure to slowly poison the system and become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the system, thereby causing rheumatism, impure blood, indigestion, headaches, and a hundred other ailments which are directly the result of constipation.

If you want to be healthy all the time we would strongly advise you to get a J.B.L. Cascade, which is the only perfected appliance ever devised for efficiently cleansing the colon and liver intestines. It is the "Internal Bath" of Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, who is a specialist on Internal Bathing. The J.B.L. Cascade is shown and explained at The Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co. Ltd., where you can see an interesting book entitled "Why Man of Today is Only 60% Efficient." It will tell you facts about yourself that you probably never realized before, or write Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 183 College Street, Toronto.

NOBODY COULD GUESS

Nobody could guess in what building or section a serious fire might occur this week—or next. For the very next fire might be a very personal matter to you. Are you well insured? Isn't it a comfort to feel that a fire disaster cannot "wipe you out?" And, if amply insured, you may feel that way.

CARD & HARKIN

When in town call at our warehouse and examine the many desirable features of the IMPROVED COCKSHUTT DRILL. This drill is convertible from lever lift to power lift, for use with horses or tractors, equipped with everters, poles and neckyoke, or with Engine Hitch as desired.

If you purchase an Improved Cockshutt Lever Lift Drill, and later you desire to add the Power Lift Attachment with Engine Hitch for Tractor, you can do so or if you wish to add it for use with horses, you can do so, as it eliminates the work and stopping at the end of the field to lift the discs or shoes out of the ground or to put them in.

It has large sized Grain Box, and lids of box are metal covered. The feed device is known as the Fluted Feed, and is positively the most satisfactory.

It is made in different sizes up to the 12 foot size, and can be equipped with double discs, single discs, or drag shoes, all interchangeable. It will pay you to investigate the merits of this Drill.

Supplying the Demand for Royal Purple Calf Meal

This baby food for young animals is partially predigested, and can be fed to the youngest animals with perfect safety. It will not cause stomach or bowel trouble for suckling.

Calves Gain Rapidly Without Milk

When the calves are 3 or 4 days old they can be fed Royal Purple Calf Meal and raised just as well without one drop of milk. What prominent breeders remark: "Gentlemen—in regard to your Calf Meal, I think you have the best on the market, as people who have bought it give it great praise. Some have taken their calves of one week, and feed them nothing but your Calf Meal and water, and say they are doing as well as it as they did on the whole milk."

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I have secured your "Royal Purple" Calf Meal from your drugist, Mr. T. C. Nichols, of Uxbridge, and can speak of this meal in the highest terms. I have used other calf meals, but this one is the best I ever tried. I never saw a calf gain more rapidly and surely, after than mine did while using your Royal Purple Calf Meal. I can cheerfully recommend it to all our stockmen who wish to raise large, healthy calves.

Note:—Royal Purple Calf Meal keeps a large herd of calves in good health, and is an excellent authority on Calf Food. It is a complete food, and is good for young calves, lambs and young pigs. Put up in 10-lb. bags. Secure it from our dealer in your town.

FREE BOOK Send for our 80-page book which describes the common diseases of stock and poultry, also methods of feeding and our many products. Get a copy today.

The following are a few of the many in this district who are using ROYAL PURPLE CALF MEAL. Ask them about it.
